

MiDesk handover and demonstration at Thembelihle Primary School

Letter from the CEO

Dear Friends and Supporters,

This August reminded me, once again, why weFEEDsa exists: to unlock dignity through empowerment. Three moments in particular stand out.

The first highlight this month has been helping bring MiDesk to learners who need it most. Through our partnership and the generous sponsorship of FR Waring, 66 learners now have portable desks that make learning possible anywhere—at school, at home, or outdoors. Hearing how these simple tools give children dignity, confidence, and focus has been deeply inspiring. It's a powerful reminder that when people and organisations come together, practical solutions can open doors to brighter futures.

The second was our inaugural My Human Tools training course. We call the graduates "The First Tribe," and rightly so. Watching them embrace skills like problem-solving, clarity, and accountability was deeply moving. These are tools no one can take away - because they live inside you.

Finally, receiving the SEF Grant (Round 4) was a proud moment. It affirms the belief others place in us and gives us the means to create real jobs and lasting impact.

To every funder, partner, volunteer, and colleague—thank you. Your belief turns vision into livelihoods. Together, we are building pathways to dignity.

Warm regards,
Zahid Fahey

HIGHLIGHTS

FR WARING SPONSORS 66 MIDESKS

weFEEDsa in partnership with FR Waring have provided 66 MiDesks from MiDesk Global to Grade 1 learners at Thembelihle Primary School in Howick. These portable desks give children the freedom to learn anywhere - at home, in class, or even under a tree. More than just a surface, each MiDesk creates dignity and focus, helping young learners dream bigger. Partnerships like this truly shape brighter futures. The programme helps individuals confront challenges directly and navigate life's obstacles with confidence. Cultivating problem-solving, self-awareness, and personal accountability, it empowers participants to overcome barriers and take control of their lives. HIGHLIGHTS

"I will forever be grateful to weFEEDsa for the incredible support they gave me through my bursary. Their generosity opened the door for me to pursue my studies while being able to work and grow. It wasn't always easy balancing both but knowing that I had their support gave me the strength to keep pushing forward. They didn't just help me with my education, they believed in me, and that belief gave me the courage to chase my goals."
