

SEN IN-PERSON MEETING
Strategic Implementation Partner Discussion

Letter from the CEO

Dear weFEEDsa Family,

May brought stories worth telling and people worth celebrating. As always, lasting impact comes down to partnerships, purpose, and people, and this month was a strong reminder of exactly that.

Our leadership team attended the Social Employment Network (SEN) meeting hosted by the IDC, providing opportunities to collaborate, share insights, and strengthen efforts aimed at addressing South Africa's pressing social challenge; unemployment.

We are proud to empower a young athlete, Terrence, by investing in his passion for volleyball, which supports our youth development programme and helps create positive pathways for young people through sport.

Our commitment to teamwork and wellness extends beyond the workplace as staff participated in the East Coast Radio Big Walk, reinforcing the importance of health and connection within our organisation.

We express our appreciation to PwC for their donation of gently used files, furniture, and carpets. These resources will benefit schools, children's homes and ECD centres, improving learning environments for those we serve.

Together, through collaboration and shared purpose, we continue to create opportunities, strengthen communities, and build hope for a better future.

Warm regards,
Zahid Fakey

SEN IN-PERSON SESSION: SHAPING WHAT'S NEXT

Our team had the honour of attending the Social Employment Network in-person meeting in Johannesburg. Over two days, the Social Employment Fund (SEF) Strategic Implementation Partners came together for honest, energetic conversation.

With Round 5 on the horizon, discussions focused on participant pathways, knowledge exchange, and the network's future direction. The depth of experience in the room was clear, and the priorities and actions that emerged will directly shape planning in the weeks ahead.

TURNING PASSION INTO PURPOSE THROUGH SPORT

Meet Terrence, a participant in the SEF programme and athlete at the UKZN Volleyball Club, who is sharing his passion for sport with other young people.

Through the programme, he visits schools and communities to provide volleyball coaching and skills development, helping learners build confidence and discover their potential.

"It's a gift I can share with the next generation," he says.

For Terrence, every training session is a chance to inspire young people and turn passion into purpose, one player at a time.

PWC STEPS UP WITH MEANINGFUL DONATIONS

Thanks to PwC's generous donation of files, paper punches, and staplers, Sastri College, George Campbell School of Technology, and Parlock Primary School received essential stationery to support teaching and learning. In addition, Tholuthando Children's Home was provided with floor tiles for its study room, creating a more conducive learning environment for the children in its care. This partnership demonstrates how corporate investment can create lasting impact in communities. We invite other corporates to partner with us in creating opportunities, strengthening institutions, and building brighter futures for young people.

CONNECTING BEYOND THE OFFICE WITH ECR

Our team proudly took part in the East Coast Radio Big Walk, transforming the event into a rewarding team-building experience. Sharing the challenge of the walk created opportunities to connect, encourage one another, and strengthen relationships beyond the workplace.

Filled with great energy, meaningful conversations, and plenty of team spirit, the day was a reminder that strong teams are built through shared experiences. Here's to more opportunities to connect, grow, and achieve together.

HIGHLIGHTS

"On behalf of my family, I want to express our sincere gratitude for the assistance with our rental. It gives me the time needed to secure a job or establish my business to cover my own expenses going forward. I have all girls and I can't let them down as a father. Thank you for supporting a deserving family in need. May the Almighty bless everyone involved."
